GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 6385

THE COUNTY GOVERNMENTS ACT

(No. 17 of 2012)

KAJIADO COUNTY GOVERNMENT

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES DIRECTORATE

STAMPING STATIONS FOR VERIFICATION OF WEIGHTS, MEASURES, WEIGHING AND MEASURING EQUIPMENT USED FOR TRADE

PURSUANT to section 27 of the Weights and Measures Act (Cap 513) laws of Kenya. It is notified for the information of all the persons within a radius of twenty (20) kilometers from the centers mentioned here below having in their possession Weights, Measures, Weighing or Measuring instruments in use for trade that an Inspector of Weights and Measures shall visit those trading centers for the purposes of examining, verifying, stamping and re-stamping of such Weights, Measures, Weighing and Measuring instruments on the dates and time indicated against them.

For that matter therefore, all traders are required to produce to the inspector all those instruments for the exercise.

Note that instruments which by reason of their being permanently fixed or of their heavy weight, or delicate construction that cannot be conveniently moved, and all weighing instruments exceeding 500Kg capacity will be verified in-situ. Traders in possession of such instruments will be deemed to have complied with the requirement to this notice by notifying the inspector in writing of such details of type, capacity and physical location of such instrument at least three (3) days before the date on which verification falls due.

CHAPTER ONE

OVERVIEW

Introduction

The centrality of culture and heritage to the socio-economic and sustainable development needs of a county can neither be over-emphasized nor gainsaid. The Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) underline the important role of culture in meeting development challenges.

Article 11 of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 states:

1. The Constitution recognizes culture as the foundation of the nation and as cumulative civilization of the Kenyan people and nation.

2. The state shall:

Promote all forms of national and cultural expression through literature, the art, traditional celebrations, science, communication information, mass media, publications, libraries and other cultural heritage.

The Fourth Schedule of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 part 2(4) lists cultural activities as devolved function.

The County Government in conformity shall:

- Take necessary steps to ensure protection and promotion of culture and cultural diversity among communities.
- Take necessary steps to ensure protection and promotion of the county's heritage.

1.2 Rationale for the Policy

This policy seeks to define the major components of county culture as well as heritage and further identify and outline major cultural institutions. The policy statement maps out operational strategies, resources, approaches and administrative practices necessary for cultural revival and preservation of county heritage.

To achieve this, the County Government shall:

- Promote culture as the centerpiece and driving force behind human, social and economic development.
- Take appropriate measures for the protection, conservation and preservation of tangible and intangible cultural heritage situated within its boundaries.

1.3 Aims of the Policy

This Policy aims at:

- Entrenching culture and heritage as key to the county's sustainable development.
- Ensuring that county heritage in all their forms are preserved, enhanced and handed over to future generations as a record of human experience and aspirations.

1.4 Objectives

The objective of this policy is to:

- Guide the coordination and implementation of county cultural programs.
- Promote unity in cultural diversity.
- Create awareness on cultural rights and intellectual property rights of the communities.
- Promote creative cultural industries and centres.
- Establish strong legal framework for county cultural programs.

CHAPTER TWO

2.0 Culture, Heritage and County Cohesion

A key objective of this Policy is to provide the means by which the County Government of Uasin Gishu can carve out a strong and vibrant county identity, ignite citizens' pride and patriotism and promote cohesion in the county. It proposes the establishment of community cultural centres which shall be hubs for the development, preservation, promotion and dissemination of culture.

The County Government shall:

- Promote cultural diversity to enhance unity and support the commitment of all communities towards the development of the spirit of patriotism.
- Support development of community cultural centres.

2.1 Culture, Heritage and Economy

This policy is an affirmation of the county government's commitment to protection of intellectual property rights of artists, creators and performers.

The County Government of Uasin Gishu shall strive to ensure protection of copyright and related rights in the interest of development of contemporary creativity.

2.2 Tangible Cultural Heritage

Tangible culture refers to objects, movable and immovable whose outcome adds value to cultural practitioners' future. These include visual arts, craft, fashion, designs, painting, sculpture and graphics.

As a commitment to the protection, preservation and retrieval of important cultural objects of tangible culture the County Government of Uasin Gishu shall:

- Undertake to establish county arts galleries to recognize protect and promote art and creative talents.
- Protect our code of dress under the Industrial Property Act, of 2001 and encourage its production for commercial purposes.
- Promote visual arts by facilitating exhibitions and art fairs, locally, regionally to promote exchanges between artists from different cultural horizons.

2.3 Health, Medicine, Traditional Foods and Drinks

Alternative medicine plays a significant role in many kenyan communities. Cultures have various foods that guarantee the communities' nutritional requirements and add nourishment as well as the interest in medicinal value.

The County Government shall:

- Put in place legal regulatory framework in order to create parity between and alternative medicine and contemporary medicine.
- Undertake to protect traditional healing methods and indigenous knowledge and in particular conserve and preserve natural resources as an important source of alternative medicine.
- Undertake to establish registration and licensing guidelines for the practice of alternative medicine.
- Encourage the consumption, and popularization of inter-ethnic traditional dishes and drinks.
- Encourage cultural exchange amongst communities in culinary arts through food exhibitions.
- Initiate research, documentation and conservation of knowledge and traditional foods and drinks.

2.4. Historical Sites and Monuments

Sites and monuments forms part of the county's immovable heritage. The conservation and preservation of such sites and monuments promotes a stable society and ensures recognition of different cultural identities.

The County Government shall:

- Establish institutions to ensure the conservation and promotion of immovable heritage and further enact laws that provide the appropriate legislative and administrative frameworks for the protection of sites and monuments.
- Encourage the participation of local communities in the planning and management of sites and monuments.
- Encourage sustainable projects in areas with immovable heritage so as to contribute to people's social welfare, improved quality of life and sustainable development.

2.5 Performing Arts

Performing arts refers to music, drama, dance and recitals (Narratives, stories and poetry). In the African set up, performances reflect the aesthetic principles and ethical values of the society. It teaches the young and passes language values, literary traditions and styles from one generation to another in the society.

The county Government shall:

- Create and sustain an enabling environment in which performing arts will thrive.
- Formulate legislation to enhance protection of artists' rights.
- Promote the development of talent in performing arts by utilizing the Kenya Music and Cultural Festival as the principal channel for talent development.
- Take necessary steps to promote and encourage research in performing arts.
- Undertake to register and establish a data base for performing artists.

2.6 Language and Literature

Language and culture are protected in article 44 of the constitution of Kenya, 2010 which states that:

1. Every person has the right to use the language, and to participate in the cultural life of the person's choice.
2. A person belonging to a cultural or linguistic community has the right, with other members of that community—

(a) to enjoy the persons culture and use the person's language; or

(b) to form, join or maintain culture and linguistic associations and other organs of society.

A language long associated with culture is best able to express most easily, exactly, and richly with more appropriate artifacts, values and interests of that culture. Language and culture are complementary, in that, language is learnt culturally and culture largely acquired through language.

Books play an important role in culture and the promotion of cultural heritage as the principle medium for the transmission of both oral and written aspect of culture.

The County Government shall:

- Encourage and create an enabling environment within which languages will be promoted.
- Undertake to promote African languages as carriers of culture.
- Encourage writing and publication in Kiswahili and other local languages and protect artistic expression among creative writers and oral artists.

2.7 Protection of Community Rights

Sometimes community cultural properties maybe illicitly transferred from their places of origin to destinations that have no bearing to the cultural objects, thus denying the communities the right to pass on their heritage to the young generations for posterity.

The County Government shall:

- Ensure the protection of community cultural properties.

2.8. Heroes and Heroines

Heroes and Heroines are individuals who through selfless sacrifice have contributed to the well being of Kenya and/or their communities in diverse ways.

Persons who fall in this category include individuals who through patriotism, integrity, commitment and vision contributed to the liberation struggle, prophecy, knowledge, cultural values and practices, arts, sports, scholarship research, statesmanship and other special achievements.

The County Government shall:

- Identifies and recognize county heroes and heroines.

2.9. Council of Elders

2.9.1 Elder

- An elder is expected to be a person of sound and mature judgement on issues touching on his community.

2.9.2. Council of Elders

This is a group of elders as described above that have been identified by various ethnic groups to sit as a council and deliberate on issues touching on various communities.

2.9.3 Roles of Council of Elders

Council of elders operate as traditional judicial systems and play crucial role among communities especially with regard to:-

- Peace-building and cohesion.
- Conflict resolution and reconciliation.
- Cultural preservation and promotion.

The county Government of Uasin Gishu shall;

- Recognize and appreciate the important role played by the council of elders.

2.10. Cultural Tourism

Cultural tourism is a vital foreign exchange earner and a major employment sector in our country. It is also an important avenue for intercultural relations at local, regional, national, and international levels.

The County Government shall:

- Encourage public, private institutions as well as individuals to establish and maintain networks that promote cultural tourism while ensuring that cultural products and services are not unduly exploited and/or corrupted.

2.11. Capacity Building

A sustainable county policy on culture requires highly trained and informed key actors in all cultural sectors in order to ensure its implementation and the achievement of its goals. Development of cultural industries and transformation of performing arts groups into real business enterprises requires that an increasing number of persons be trained on cultural marketing and management practices.

The County Government shall:

- Establish capacity building programmes in all cultural sectors and carry out cultural research and information documentation.

CHAPTER THREE

3.0. County culture and heritage council

The County Government shall take a coordinated approach to the promotion of activities to create cohesion and consistency in the implementation of the cultural policy.

The County Government shall establish a county culture and heritage council whose membership shall include the following:

1. Chief officer in charge of culture who will be the chairperson
2. A representative from alternative medicine
3. A representative from Performing arts
4. A representative from Visual arts
5. A representative from Council of elders
6. A representative from peace and cohesion committee
7. Director culture as the secretary

The role of the council shall include:

- Identification and recognition of Heroes and Heroines.
- Mobilization of development partners for resources.
- Identification and documentation of historical sites and monuments.
- coordinate and mobilize communities on preservation of cultural artifacts in equipping county art gallery.
- Act as an advisory body on matters concerning culture and heritage.

CHAPTER FOUR

5.0. Monitoring and Evaluation

In order to monitor and evaluate the implementation of this policy, the County Government shall develop monitoring and evaluation instruments to guide cultural service delivery.

The County Government shall:

- Put in place a proper monitoring and evaluation mechanisms for the implementation of the Culture and Heritage Policy.

THE SACCO SOCIETIES ACT

(No. 14 of 2008)

REVOCATON OF DEPOSIT–TAKING LICENSE OF A SACCO SOCIETY

(Issued pursuant to section 27(3) of the Sacco Societies Act, Cap. 490B)

NOTICE is given that in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 27 as read with Reg. 6 of the Sacco Societies (Deposit-Taking Sacco Business) Regulations, 2010 and all other enabling provisions of the law, the Sacco Societies Regulatory Authority (hereinafter the Authority) has:

1. Revoked the deposit-taking Sacco business licences issued to the following Saccos:

Name of Sacco	CS/ No.	Address	Town	County	WEF
Nitunze Sacco Society Limited	3109	P.O.Box 295 - 50102	Mumias	Kakamega	28/6/2018
Moi University Sacco Society Limited	4319	P.O.Box 23 - 30100	Eldoret	Uasin Gishu	27/6/2018

2. Prohibited, the said Saccos by themselves and/or through any of its Directors, employees, agents, officers and/or any other person whatsoever from undertaking deposit-taking Sacco business (popularly known as Front Office Service Activity or FOSA) in Kenya, with effect from the above dates.

3. Prohibited all persons who were officers of the said Sacco Societies from participating in the affairs of any Sacco Society in Kenya, without a prior written approval of the Authority.

Members of the public and/or private entities are therefore warned to desist forthwith from undertaking or transacting deposit-taking Sacco business (FOSA) including but not limited to operating savings accounts, salary processing etc. with the aforesaid Sacco Societies.

Members of the public are further warned and put on notice that any person who undertakes deposit-taking Sacco business or transacts such deposit-taking business with an unlicensed person, institution or entity, shall be doing so at his/her own risk and peril.

The list of licensed deposit taking SACCO Societies can also be accessed and/or downloaded from the Authority's website www.sasra.go.ke or upon written request to the Authority. Any inquiries and/or queries in this regard may be directed in writing to the Authority through its email at info@sasra.go.ke or supervision@sasra.go.ke or otherwise to the undersigned.

Dated the 27th June, 2018.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

(1) The Kenya Gazette contains Notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.

(2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this, they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.

(3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.

(4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the Notice is, each page being numbered and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain no alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

(i) Signature must be supported by rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signatory in capital letters.

(ii) Must be correct and filled in where necessary.

(iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to Notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition. of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D 34. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m. on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) Ministries will be required to pay for the Kenya Gazette and to meet the cost of advertising in it.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
